

Dr. Kathleen Casey is the Immediate Past President of the Alliance for Surgery and Anesthesia Presence (ASAP) and a past President of the US Chapter of the International Society of Surgery. She founded the Operation Giving Back program at the American College of Surgeons, which supports the global surgical humanitarian ecosystem and fosters collaboration and innovation to advance equity in surgical care; serving as its Director for 9 years. She is a founder and architect of the G4 Alliance (the Global Alliance for Surgery, Obstetric, Trauma and Anesthesia Care) - an initiative uniting scores of global organizations in advocating for the neglected surgical patient in global health and development - where she has served as an inaugural officer. She serves on multiple boards including the International Student Surgical Network (InciSioN) and InterSurgeon. She has been recognized with Humanitarian Awards from the American Medical Association and the International College of Surgeons and has published widely on global surgery. Dr. Casey currently serves as Chief Strategy Officer and Chief Medical Officer for the global surgical non-profit, Physicians for Peace.